

BIG CROWD FACES LEGION CHAPLAIN

Father Francis A. Kelly, "fighting chaplain" of the Twenty-seventh division and national chaplain of the American Legion, spoke to the largest audience last night that has ever filled the McKinley school auditorium at East Chicago. With a voice and personality to match his six feet two of size, he held the interest of the audience for almost two hours and was then greeted with fully five minutes of applause. Father Kelly has been speaking in different cities of the country and the East Chicago stop is one of a series which include Cincinnati, Louisville, Buffalo, New York, and others. He spoke at Gary Saturday evening and at Chicago Heights Sunday afternoon.

Father Kelly was greeted at East Chicago by the American Legion, who entertained him at supper at the Elks Club rooms at 6 o'clock. During the supper and until the time set for the evening meeting at the McKinley auditorium, the diners were entertained in return by Father Kelly with numerous stories of his experiences.

The evening talk was really divided into two parts, the first of which dealt with the activities of the Twenty-seventh and co-operating divisions at the time of the breaking of the Hindenburg line in 1918 and the second part dealing with citizenship and Americanism. His descriptions of operations of the division were graphically detailed and enabled each hearer to understand exactly where each unit was stationed, how it moved and how the drive was accomplished.

During his treatise of the citizenship problem he bitterly denounced three classes of persons who appeared during the war, the conscientious objector, the radioist and those who renounced their citizenship in order to escape service all came in for a share of denunciation. He advocated 100 per cent Americanism for all who enjoy the privileges of the United States.

60 Ton Miles of Motor Truck Freight Per Person

DURING 1917 (latest authentic figures available) motor trucks hauled 60 tons of freight a mile for every person in the United States. Then the country was at war and the capacity of the railroads was overtaxed.

It is doubtful if even a small percentage of this enormous tonnage could have been moved except by motor trucks.

The management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), recognizing the necessity of furnishing facilities for supplying gasoline to automobiles and trucks as they traveled through the country, established Service Stations at convenient points throughout the territory served.

These Service Stations perfected the system of distribution maintained by the Company.

The drivers of this caravan of motor trucks which carried the 6 billion ton miles of freight in 1917 would have found their task more difficult of accomplishment had it not been for the network of Service Stations along the way.

While the Standard Oil Company was supplying a substantial share of the fuel consumed by these motor trucks, it also was supplying its regular patrons, and meeting the demands of the United States Government with great quantities of gasoline for war purposes.

Its preparedness and its ability to meet an emergency, however unheralded the emergency may be, serves to emphasize one of the salient phases of the bigness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

SEVERE FIGHTING IN MEXICAN REVOLUTION

Large part of Mexican Coast

Soon to be Controlled

By the Rebels.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Complete reports were awaited here today of the severe fighting between revolutionary troops and the federal troops in the Ajusco mountains near Mexico City. Incomplete details received at the Sonora agency here in charge of Gen. Salvador Alvarado one of the revolutionary leaders indicated that the battle which is reported to be in progress in the Ajusco mountains may bring Mexico City into the storm center of the revolution.

Reports received last week indicated that a large part of the coast of Mexico was likely to be in control of the rebels before another fortnight. The diplomatic situation between the U. S. and Mexico may become involved if rebels gain control of the west coast of Mexico. A large amount of American business passes through ports now held or menaced by the rebels. If it is to continue it may be necessary for the U. S. to enter some sort of negotiations with Gen. Obregon, leader of the rebel forces.

GARY CHURCHES MAKE RECORD

Three Gary churches made record marks on the opening of the Inter-Church World campaign yesterday. The First Baptist, East Side United Presbyterian church and First Reformed churches made the enviable record.

The First Baptist church of this city shows subscriptions which indicated leadership beyond all expectations early in the year. This church had a quota of $2,500 for the first year and subscribed $4,000. This record beats Hammond and LaPorte.

The East Side United Presbyterian church workers also amazed their quota mark going $200 more than their quota of $2,100.

The First Reformed church was early in advance of its goal, raising $2,500 with speed and outdoing the mark set for them.

Reports are coming in rapidly proving that popular interest has been aroused beyond any campaign or movement of recent months. The various church leaders found generous response to solicitation but many need further assistance and the general public is asked to do everything possible in order not only to make Gary absolutely leader of the field but to accomplish that religious work the funds will make possible.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.

While being searched he suddenly opened fire and wounded two policemen with whom he had a moment before been chatting. Escaping from the building, firing at every sky of the way and pursued by a dozen policemen, James found temporary refuge behind a patrol wagon. Here a thrilling revolver duel ensued, which ended through his brain.

Search of a garage which the robber had established on North Clark st. revealed foot-trotting, police estimate at a half million dollars.

A card index system kept by the bandits showed lists from scores of homes and listed everything from razor strops to furs and from jewelry to automobiles.
